

Connecting small scale fisheries, indigenous groups, and scientists in support of sustainable fishing and equitable blue carbon outcomes in the changing Arctic

25 March 2024 | 08:30 - 12:30 (UK)

Format: Open Session - HYBRID

Room: Holyrood (JMCC)

Session agenda:

- 8:30-8:40 – Welcome, session overview (Session chair)
- 8:40-8:47 – Presentation 1 – Practical implementation of ITK in ocean governance in non-Arctic contexts (Mariana Caldeira)
- 8:48-8:55 – Presentation 2 – Combining knowledge systems for a changing Arctic - examples from AMAP (Rolf Rodven)
- 8:55-9:10 – Introduction to knowledge-to-action pathways (Session chair)
- 9:10-9:45 – Group interactive activity building topic specific knowledge-to-action pathways in the room on poster paper and online on Google Slides, moderated by Session Chairs
- 9:45-10:00 -- Group discussion moderated by Session Chairs

10:00-10:30 – Coffee break

- 10:30-10:40 – Welcome back, session overview, previous session recap (Session chair)
- 10:40-10:47 – Presentation 3 – Philosophical framework for inclusion of IPLC knowledge in global ocean governance (Michela Massimi)
- 10:47-10:55 – Presentation 4 – “Shared knowledge for shared marine resource governance” (Brooks Kaiser)
- 10:55-11:02 – Presentation 5 – Including ITK in coastal sustainability efforts in Northern Norway (Sigrid Engen)
- 11:02-11:09 -- Presentation 6 – Engaging ITK in marine resource solutions via industry and business (Dwayne Menezes)
- 11:09 – 12:00 – Group interactive activity and discussion moderated by Session Chairs in the room on poster paper and online on Google Slides
- 12:00-12:30 – Group discussion moderated by Session Chairs